

60001002437.txt

I used to be a comcast customer and had terrible experiences with their service. Everything from being over charged for their services without reason to the calls I had to make to get it corrected. If this merger is allow comcast will hold an even greater monopoly than they have now. I do not want to be forced by my government to use them and that is exactly what would have if they are allowed to merge.