

60001006514.txt

Please don't allow Comcast to buy Time Warner Cable. This is clearly the type of 'too large to fail, too large to jail' threats that our anti-trust laws were created to prohibit...and the threats to free speech as well as net-neutrality keep getting worse with each further step towards monopoly media concentration.