

60001007329.txt

This merger will be a step toward monopoly of a service that is immensely important to individuals, institutions, and businesses across the country and around the world. We need competition to keep product quality relatively high and cost relatively low. Please stop this merger.