Re: Case Identifier: CGB-CC-1343
CG Docket No. 06-181
Petition for Closed Captioning Exemption
Request for Supplemental Information

Dear Ms. Nichols:

This letter concerns your Petition for exemption from the Federal Communications Commission's (FCC's) closed captioning requirements. After reviewing your Petition, the Consumer and Governmental Affairs Bureau (Bureau) has determined that additional information, as set forth below, is required to enable us to determine whether the programming that is the subject of your Petition should be exempted from the FCC's closed captioning requirements because captioning such programming would be economically burdensome to your organization.

Specifically, your Petition included information about the name of the specific program, the impact of captioning on your operation and program, financial resources, verifications that you have sought closed captioning assistance, and the overall type of operations. We conclude, however, that because your Petition is missing some information about the nature and cost of the closed captioning for your programming, we ask that you provide supplemental information.

If you wish to provide clarifying information to receive further consideration for a closed captioning exemption, you must supplement your Petition by providing us with the information described below by January 15, 2015, which is 30 days from the date of this letter:

- The nature and cost of the closed captions for the programming. Provide information about your organization's costs associated with closed captioning each specific program for which you are requesting an exemption, and your efforts to find companies that can provide captioning at a reasonable cost.
 - Include documentation for two or more recent quotes you received from closed captioning services to provide closed captioning specifically for your program(s). "Recent" means a quote you obtained within one year of the date of your petition.

You provided two quotes from Caption Depot and VITAC. However, it is not clear how you came to the figure of $287.50 for the VITAC quote. The VITAC 30-minute captioning quote is $187.50. Can you clarify if you added the cost of encoding the file, and used the figure of $100 for a digital file?

- For each of these quotes, include an estimate of your annual cost to caption your program(s). For example, multiply the cost to caption each of your program episodes by the number of program episodes you expect to produce and show in one year.

You provided the annualized cost for each of the quotes. You indicated that these costs do not include the cost of added employee time or unforeseen expenses. If you wish for us to consider the additional costs, you must provide us with specific amounts, which are documented to extent possible and justified, and include them in the annualized cost for each of the quotes.

- In addition to providing the quotes described above, if you have considered buying equipment to produce the closed captioning yourself, provide information about the costs to purchase and maintain the equipment and for any costs associated with hiring personnel to operate the equipment for one year.

You provided some information about purchasing equipment to produce the captioning yourself. If you wish for us to consider this information, you must provide a total annualized cost associated with purchasing, maintaining and operating the equipment for one year, with documentation to extent possible.

- Affidavit or declaration. Your supplementary information must contain a detailed, full showing, supported by a signed and sworn affidavit or signed declaration made under penalty of perjury attesting to the truthfulness and accuracy of the information and representations contained in your submission. An affidavit is a written statement made under oath, before an official who is authorized to administer oaths, such as a notary public or county clerk. A declaration is a written statement made under penalty of perjury, such as “I declare under penalty of perjury that the information contained in this submission is true and correct.” (See 47 C.F.R. § 1.16.) The affidavit or declaration must be dated.

You may also provide other information that you deem relevant to our determination of your exemption request pertaining to the impact that captioning will have on your program or programming activities and any available alternatives that might constitute a reasonable substitute for the closed captioning requirements including, but not limited to, text or graphic display of the content of the audio portion of the programming.

Because of the public nature of FCC proceedings, your submission, as well as any supporting financial or other information provided, will be available for inspection by the general public. If your submission contains some specific information that you would like not to be made routinely available for public inspection, you may request its “confidential treatment”, pursuant to FCC rules. (See 47 C.F.R. § 0.459.) If you seek such treatment, you must identify the specific information which you would not like to be made available to the general public and provide the basis for your request, for example, that the information is proprietary financial information, contains a trade secret, or is legally privileged. Also describe how disclosing the information to the general public may cause you substantial competitive harm. You must also submit a second version of your submission with the confidential information redacted (removed or blacked out). This second version must be submitted along with your request for confidential treatment. The redacted version (i.e., the version that does not contain the confidential information) will be disclosed publicly. If your request for confidential treatment is granted, the “public version” of your submission must still contain sufficient documentation to support your claim that closed captioning would be economically burdensome. This documentation is needed so that members of the public have notice of the basis for your exemption request and can comment on its merits.

If the Bureau determines that your Petition, as supplemented by your response to this letter, provides sufficient information upon which to make a determination of whether or not to grant a closed captioning exemption, we will place your Petition on public notice under Docket No. 06-181 at <http://fjallfoss.fcc.gov/ecfs>. Members of the public will then have 30 days to file comments on and/or oppositions to your Petition, including the supplemental information you have provided in response to this letter, after which you will have 20 days to respond. At the end of this timeframe, the Bureau will review your Petition, along with any comments and responses received, to determine whether you have demonstrated that providing closed captions would be economically burdensome. If Bureau denies your Petition, you will have 90 days from the date of your notification of the denial to begin captioning.

If you have questions pertaining to this letter or the information and materials requested herein, please contact the FCC's Disability Rights Office at captioningexemption@fcc.gov.

Instructions for Filing a Supplement to a Closed Captioning Exemption Petition

As of April 30, 2014, you must send the FCC your supplemental information by e-mail to captioningexemption@fcc.gov. Petitions and supplemental materials may not be filed directly on the FCC's Electronic Comment Filing System (ECFS) or by U.S. mail. At this time, the FCC's e-mail system does not accept attachments in the form of .ZIP files or file sizes larger than 13.3 megabytes. If a petitioner has concerns that its file size will exceed this limitation, please contact captioningexemption@fcc.gov. Because the FCC will upload petitions and any supporting information and documentation to ECFS, petitioners must follow the ECFS document format guidelines (<http://apps.fcc.gov/ecfs/userManual/upload/documents.jsp>) when sending petitions, supporting information, and documentation via e-mail. For more information about this electronic filing procedure, visit <http://www.fcc.gov/encyclopedia/economically-burdensome-exemption-closed-captioning-requirements>.

You must include your case identifier number, which is located at the top of this letter, and CG Docket Number 06-181 in all correspondence with the FCC regarding your petition.
