

60001010851.txt

I feel that the internet should be open and free and that cable companies should NOT be allowed to toll for service providers. They already have a monopoly service and if anything, cable companies should be forced to compete with each other and not have an ad hoc agreement to form monopolies.