

60001011435.txt

I support net neutrality and I believe that keeping an open unregulated internet is what America is all about. We could not have come this far without everyone having access to the same tools of communication. I have never commented before but I believe this to be the most important issue of my lifetime and I request the FCC uphold its obligation to the citizens of the United States and protect net neutrality.