

60001011741.txt

Continue paying Sorenson video relay service and other companies to make equipment and installation and repair and technical services available for the deaf and hard of hearing. Making the deaf to provide their own equipment is not is not wise, because they do not have the technical expertise and off the shelf equipment does not work well.