

60001012145.txt

Allowing the Hotels to block wi fi signals would interfere with a disabled person's need to use the wi fi signal.

A Deaf person relies on wi fi signals to communicate with the outside world.

Any attempt to interfere, or block wi fi signals would be a violation of the Americans with Disability Act of the United States of America.

Any companies that offer's wi fi to the general public, must allow traffic from deaf's video phone unobstructed.

Thank you.