

60001014244.txt

Granting this request to allow a hotel or convention center to block access to use unlicensed spectrum simply because it deprives the owner the opportunity to control customers access to the internet is about as anti-consumer as it gets. Consumers usually do not get to choose the venue for events such as conventions - they go where the convention organizers choose to hold the event. Do not allow businesses of any type to interfere with unlicensed spectrum - it sets a bad precedent and is anti-consumer.