

60001014976.txt

I am an active amateur radio operator and my primary mode in communicating is CW (e.g. "Morse"). I am opposed to RM-11708 on the basis that extending the bandwidth of signals in the digital segments would contribute negatively to overcrowding. Narrowband spectrum modes should be encouraged and protected.