

60001016685.txt

I support net neutrality and the open internet. I can not stress how against getting rid of net neutrality I am. You will be destroying one of the only level playing fields average citizens have to compete against established corporations that already have monopoly like control on providing the internet. I sincerely wish for the FCC not to interfere with net neutrality. The internet is the last frontier of true entrepreneurship left in America. Please don't mess it up.