Dear Ms. Dortch:

Securus Technologies, Inc. (“Securus”), through counsel, files this letter to request the confidential version of the Reply Comments, including the Reply to Comments on Second Further Notice of Proposed Rulemaking by Coleman Bazelon, filed on behalf of Martha Wright, et al. in this docket on January 27, 2015. This request is being served simultaneously on the ICS provider whose confidential data is included in that filing. Please see the attached Certificate of Service.

Neither Securus nor any of its outside legal counsel wish to see or receive the documents. Rather, Securus asks that the ICS providers send the data directly to FTI Consulting, Inc. which has been retained by Securus for performing cost analysis in connection with this proceeding. Counsel for Ms. Wright should send the full, unredacted version of the Reply Comments to:

Mr. Pitkin and Mr. Steven Turner of FTI have executed the Protective Order adopted December 19, 2013, in this proceeding. In addition, no FTI personnel are Securus employees and none of them participate in Competitive Decision-Making for Securus. No party objected to Securus’s request, dated January 15, 2015, for the Confidential Version of the Wright Comments filed January 12, 2015.

FTI will not show to Securus or discuss with Securus any confidential data in the Comments other than data that was provided by Securus. Any report or response that FTI creates will be filed by FTI under seal, and no drafts containing confidential data of any other ICS provider will be shared with Securus or its outside counsel. A Public Version of any such report will be provided to Securus and the undersigned counsel for filing.
