

60001025284.txt

I can not believe that net neutrality is even being considered. These large conglomerates already have a huge monopoly in our society and now we are going to open the doors for an even bigger monopoly. This is a ridiculous proposal and certainly will not serve the public in any positive manor.