

60001025675.txt

I want internet service providers to be classified under Title II of the Communications Act. We have little competition by the internet service providers and now they want to squeeze more money out of us. I want internet service providers classified as common carriers.