

60001025822.txt

The Internet is the only place that we have true freedom of speech. Please let us have some place that is still has a free market. Any one can still be heard there and start a business with very little money. This is what America was founded on.

Thank you.