

60001027538.txt

It is your duty and obligation to keep the net neutral. This is a area where if allowed there will be created a great disparity in how this country is treated with respect to how we do business and who is in control of what. It will greatly diminish our ability to compete which is the foundation of our economic system. We are not a monopolistic state but if you allow this we are one step closer.