

60001030117.txt

Would like to state that we are against "Net Neutrality" simply because it seems to just be a way for the government to have control over what and how people view on the internet.

It is already free, free from intrusion, fees, taxes and oversight of what is able to be viewed.

Control is all that this is about. Control the people and their information.