

60001033097.txt

The US Government has no reason to control the internet. It did not invent it and it works just fine without government intervention. The fact that the 332 page bill is not available to the public or to Congress causes much suspicion as to the goals of this government. DO NOT DO THIS!