

60001033916.txt

Vote to keep the net neutral.

If you vote against neutrality, you will create more monopolies. There is no cable company competition. The most you get is a choice of two companies. In most places, you have only one. Don't give them more power. Let them earn it the way our forefathers meant us to earn it: through competition.