

60001034809.txt

I strongly disagree with the proposed 50mw transmission power limit for all UHF microphone transmitters. I work as a sound mixer for film and television and could not physically do some of the work I do without transmitters that broadcast above 50mw. 50mw is sometimes not enough to compete with the harsh environments and range requirements many of my jobs entail. Please do not impose a 50mw limit for wireless microphone transmitters.