

60001035265.txt

I fully support net neutrality. To limit public access for corporate greed is unconscionable. Make no mistake, any attempt to limit it will be viewed for what it is...censorship, and an attempt to control what people see and how they communicate. This is reminiscent of the USSR. Please maintain our freedom and don't be implicit in destroying it!