

60001035389.txt

NO to neutrality! This is not what the people need. It is not right to have 5 people decide this issue for the public. This issue should be determined by our elected officials as part of our democratic process! We as a people should be able to vote on such a decision. 5 people deciding this issue for the rest of us is a slap in the face to the principles and laws of this country!