

60001037306.txt

My husband and I are Senior Citizens. We are offered 2 internet providers in our area at a very expensive monthly rate. The speed is average at best and we often lose connectivity. If the proposed hike in rates for super-highway speed is adopted, I think we will be priced out of the market. Please do not go forward with this idea.

Thank you,
Irene Chapnick