

60001038951.txt

Maintaining Net Neutrality is of uttermost importance! The internet is unique! It is the only free and global form of media and communication. Freedom of speak and thought are important to ensure the development of society on a global level! If Americas internet access is altered it will have effects on a global scale! Furthermore as European I am also deeply concerned that the EU will adapt this idea and change laws accordingly.