

60001039341.txt

The internet must remain open and free, just like our society. Please do not impose a tiered system onto Americans so the cable companies can profit. Net neutrality must continue, it is in the spirit of our great country to do so.