Re: Applications of Comcast Corp., Time Warner Cable Inc., Charter Communications, Inc., and SpinCo for Consent to Assign or Transfer Control of Licenses and Authorizations, MB Docket No. 14-57

REDACTED – FOR PUBLIC INSPECTION

Dear Ms. Dortch,

On December 23, 2014, Time Warner Cable Inc. (“TWC”) submitted a list of documents that were inadvertently produced despite containing privileged information. Upon consultation with Commission staff, TWC submits a revised list—replacing its earlier submission—and requests that the documents on this list be destroyed by the Commission and all Reviewing Parties that have been furnished with them. Additionally, for the sake of clarity, TWC recalls certain documents that have been replaced by versions with fewer redactions.

A Highly Confidential version of this letter is being filed simultaneously under separate cover and will be made available for inspection pursuant to the terms of the Second Amended Modified Joint Protective Order.¹

TWC has made diligent efforts to ensure that none of the documents it is submitting herewith are privileged under the attorney-client privilege or attorney work product doctrine. To the extent that any privileged documents may have been inadvertently produced, such production does not constitute a waiver of any applicable privilege. TWC requests that any privileged
