

60001041096.txt

Maintain Net Neutrality! I am a physician by background and right now the internet is more open, free, and available than basic healthcare. If you allow the development of a two-tier system, the gap between the poor and wealthy will every wider and threaten the stabilization of our society.