

60001041762.txt

Troup County Schools properly conducted a competitive bid process, but funding was demanded returned after a POA auditor determined a violation had occurred. The attached documentation illustrates clearly that the competitive bid process occurred, and that an inexperienced district staff person misunderstood the auditor's question.

We do not seek relief for an error that was made, we seek relief by asking for understanding of the simple facts in this matter.