

60001043477.txt

If this were to happen, commercial radio would become a closed system for large media companies to promote their products.