

60001047085.txt

The practice of accepting cash or other enticements from labels in exchange for airplay is not fair, unless the payment is disclosed. I am an old lady of 66, who has loved rock and roll music since I was a kid. I want to hear new music, not what some corporation says I should hear. I took classical piano lessons through college. I love music. Sweet, sweet music.