

60001047570.txt

I think these proposals are great. LPFM stations support the community in a way that commercially owned stations cannot, and allowing more flexibility for these stations while would be a major plus.