

60001047770.txt

Nudity on television should be considered pornography and only allowed on premium cable channels, like HBO, Showtime and Cinemax. I believe The Discovery channel is in violation of FCC regulations with the program, Naked and Afraid and also the advertising of the program, on family oriented channels like National Geographic. Please put a stop to this insanity.