

60001075981.txt

I've worked in public safety as a dispatcher and dispatch supervisor for several PSAPs throughout the country. I am in favor of sunsetting the ability of non-initialized cell phones to contact 911.

Non-initialized phones take away time from responders and waste tax dollars. In 20+ years of public safety dispatching I have never had an occasion where a non-initialized phone was used in a valid emergency.

Thank you.