

60001076486.txt

I DO NOT AGREE. Allow me to begin with that, as I speak on the behalf on millions of others. By allowing the two companies to merge, the US government hypocritically allows corruption to run rampant. By merging these companies, not only will a monopoly establish itself even further than it already has concerning internet providers, but it will create an environment that will lead to further corruption later on with a decrease in service.