

60001076912.txt

The increase in wattage is a necessity for our local radio station. My office specifically has the need for being able to cover our entire county for public service and safety announcements. Presently, the station does not cover the entire county.

Thank you.

Joseph Griffin, Director
Martin Co. Emergency Management