

60001076914.txt

We broadcast in a rural multiple city area which leaves many of our listeners outside our coverage area. We believe that a power increase would be a great benefit to those in these areas. It would also give them greater access to the emergency alerts on a station they are tuned into.