

60001077042.txt

I urge you to please uphold the strong new net neutrality rules approved by president Obama. Keeping net neutrality in the internet is incredibly important for this country and for preventing monopolies in the internet providing industry.