

60001077058.txt

WYJR-LP offers the Middlesboro High School students another avenue to become a successfully productive members of society. Students can learn marketing and advertising techniques, proper communication etiquette, and even modern civics. Locally, a school radio can help provide help to the community through emergency broadcasts, high school sporting events, radio dramas, band/chorale presentations, and even weather reports.