

60001077060.txt

With the restrictions of LP100 our LP FM radio station KPSQ has had a difficult time finding an antenna location high enough to get over the hilly terrain of Fayetteville, while leaving enough power to penetrate buildings. The LP250 proposal would help the station reach all of this small city with local programming and life saving emergency broadcasts.