

60001077105.txt

People's lives are placed in dangerous situation every day across the country, our telecommunications system is not a matter of convenience, it has been our We of staying safe and too know our families are safe as well So some thing needs to be do to restore our telecommunications system and our public phone accessibility.