

60001077151.txt

The ability to increase low power fm broadcast wattage to 250W is an important public service. LPFM stations allow everyday Americans to share ideas and creativity with other citizens. This is an important piece of every American's right to the freedom of speech. Support the effort to increase wattage limits. Thank you.