

60001077216.txt

I do not think Comcast and TWC should be able to have a virtual monopoly. They basically rule the internet, and they choose who they want to provide to. If this continues, I will protest in front of the capitol building for however long it takes for this legislation to be revoked. Please do not do this. Think of the children.