

60001077477.txt

LPFM is local and benefits the local community.

LPFM allows small non-profit local groups to have a voice on the airwaves.

All kinds of different groups and people benefit, including local non-profits that serve those who cannot serve themselves-namely homeless, disabled vets, etc.

If space permits, there would be no harm in increasing the power to 250 watts, more people could be reached.