

60001077571.txt

I am NOT opposed to these mergers. Instead, the level of awareness of the plight of rural, independent programming in Washington, DC needs to be raised. We, in small towns of America, need to know that our rural channels are treated fairly with these mergers so that rural interests are protected. Rural communities need to be considered as important as the big "urban" sprawls that consume so much airspace.