

60001077689.txt

As a board member and volunteer for WCHQ 100.9 (Louisville, KY), I endorse the FCC's proceeding to increase LPFM to 250 watts. This is an important step in increasing community radio, and I fully support any measure to increase community access to local radio programming. This is important to so many people of varying interests and backgrounds in our area. Please support this effort.