

60001079529.txt

It makes no sense to give majority foreign owned corporations (T mobile/ Deutsche Telcom and Sprint SoftBank - Japan) discounts on U S airwaves auctions as this subsidizes foreign firms at the cost of U S Taxpayers. All accounts report that this practice reduces potential proceeds from if it was a normal auction. These corporate owners have plenty of money to pay regular price and do not deserve discounts. The extra money raised could be used for the public good.