

60001081436.txt

When was the last time the FCC actually did something beneficial for people of America? You stand to break something here that fundamentally impacts our quality of life. Why? Because you think its best? No. Because some cable companies are willing to spend millions upon millions to find esoteric loopholes in very clear laws. I truly wish you satan spawn would go burn in hell.