

60001083105.txt

I am in support of allowing LPFM operators to broadcast at up to 250 watts if the signal generated does not materially impinge on existing frequencies in that broadcast region.

LPFM does provide community services that larger broadcast entities fail to deliver. It is in the public interest that LPFM is fully exploited so these broadcast entities can meet their communities needs.

Best regards to you and your staff.

Wayne Genthner