

60001112238.txt

I really hope an agreement can be reached with Cox Communications sooner than later. I miss the family entertainment. The programs were something the whole family can sit down and watch together without violence or bad language. I can't be the only person in my area that likes this type of programming.