

60001113595.txt

Reject the proposed ATT / Direct TV acquisition.
Economic efficiency is premised on competition not consolidation.
This will result in reduced consumer choice.
The Free Enterprise system works if companies are forced to compete.
Allowing large mergers leads to oligopoly that harms the consumer.
Right now I have choice among competitive rivals for cable service in ATT and DTV--don't take that away that consumer choice. Force them to compete not defacto collude.